the 1990s, the number of people in the world who are under 15 years of age is expected to increase by 1.5 billion (United Nations 1994).

There is a growing awareness of the need to address the needs of children in the 1990s. The United Nations Children's Fund (UNICEF) has been instrumental in this regard, and has produced a number of reports and publications which have helped to focus attention on the needs of children in the 1990s. The UNICEF World Survey of Children (1990) is a landmark publication which provides a comprehensive overview of the state of children's lives in the world.
